Schools opened in Oak Hill Tuesday with Miss Margaret Purcell in the intermediate and Miss Mable Davis in the primary departments.

Carl Sweet, a young veteran of the world war had several encounters with the Huns while in the service, last Sunday night while returning to his home after spending the evening with a neighbor came face to face with some kind of a wild beast of the forest. Before the young warrior could gather up a weapon of protection, as he intended to make a capture of the enemy, the animal made a leap with his eyes like balls of fire and went down an embankment about twenty feet and fled. The young private of the world war went "over the top" again a victor.

Mrs. Caroline Barber, widow of the late Addison O. Barber, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Montgomery, last Sunday.

Mrs. Barber was a life long resident of Pownal and was a kind neighbor and loving mother and had of late been living with her children who did everything that loving hands could do in her declining years. She leaves three sons Murry and Roy of Williminstown, Joseph, Mrs. George Montgomery and Mrs. Bushnell Thompson of Pownal and several grand children. The funeral was held from the home of Mrs. Montgomery Tuesday afternoon with interment in Oak Hill cemetery.
